

Typhoon Haiyan Devastated the Philippines

Written by Tzu Chi Foundation
Monday, 11 November 2013 17:28

On November 8 and 9, the Typhoon Haiyan caused devastation in the Philippines, particularly in Tacloban and Ormoc city of Leyte Province and Guiua on Samar Island .

On November 10, the official estimated that at least 10,000 people have died and nearly ten million people were affected. Tzu Chi Foundation, Philipines, has began the works of disaster assessment and gathering all information.

Let us unite together to help and pray for the suffering people in the Philippines.