In Poznan, Poland, there is a "House of Hope", which helps drug addicts and rehabilitated people. Since the Russian invasion of Ukraine this February, it has also hosted refugees from Ukraine. Tzu Chi volunteers have come to care for them.

The Beauty of Religious Harmony

Sister Joseph, Head of the Home of Hope, described the beauty of religious harmony as blooming with hope.

She said: "Like St. Mary, the world and God are as beautiful as a garden with many flowers. We are helping everyone who is like a beautiful flower in the garden over the years."

Polish volunteer Lukasz said: "Even though we are Buddhists, I mean Tzu Chi is a Buddhist organization, we are very welcome here. They don't mind having friends of different faiths. The spirit is the same as Tzu Chi."
